THE 2008 CAGC EDUCATION GOLF BENEFIT TOURNAMENT SPONSORED BY DIXON HUGHES PROVIDES ADDITIONAL FUNDING TO THE AGC EDUCATION FOUNDATION

The Dixon Hughes Scholarship Fund created in 2002 is intended for exceptional students who require financial assistance for education in the building sciences. It is permanently endowed so depending on market conditions, calculated amounts will be given each year, thus leaving the fund at a sustainable level.

The 2008 CAGC Education Golf Benefit Tournament sponsored by Dixon Hughes was held on May 18, 2008. It is the single largest fund raising event for the education foundation.

The first scholarship recipient to receive this scholarship was Bret Estridge from East Carolina University who graduated in May of 2003 in Construction Engineering Management.

Other past scholarship recipients include:

- 2003 - Gregory Lucier from North Carolina State University who graduated in May of 2004 with a B.S. in Civil Engineering. He received his MSCE in May of 2006 from North Carolina State University.
- 2004 - Benjamin T. Buskirk from North Carolina State University who graduated in May of 2005 in Construction Engineering.
- 2007 - Daniel Edwards from East Carolina University who graduated in May of 2008 in Construction Management.

This year's scholarship recipient was Kelly Kronenwetter from North Carolina State University. She will graduate in May of 2009 in Construction Engineering Management / Civil Engineering.
